Five years of service at Safeway

Williamstown

Anthony Toniola has been employed by Safeway Williamstown for five years. Anthony was recently presented with a five year service award. Domenic Nucara the store Manager says "In the five years that Anthony has been working at the store, he has found Anthony to be hard working, honest and reliable."

Anthony has worked extremely hard to reach this milestone and is employed at the store as a grocery assistant.

Anthony was very proud and excited to receive his award and couldn't wait to share this excitement with Jobs West.

When asked what is the best thing about working at Safeway, Anthony replied " I really enjoy working at Safeway Williamstown and I really like all the people I work with."Anthony's duties vary, they include trolley collection, assisting with the receiving of deliveries, facing up and keeping the store area clean and tidy.

The recipients of the award are presented with a 'five year service badge'. This is usually done in the staff room, and all available staff attend. The presentation is followed by an afternoon tea supplied by the Store.

Anthony is very excited about his future at Safeway and looks forward to achieving his next milestone, 10 years of service.

A very proud Anthony Toniola

With a lot more hard work there is no reason why Anthony won't achieve his goals.

Good luck with it all Anthony.

A strategy that gives a company a competitive advantage, while doing something positive for the community, must be worth considering. An increasing number of companies are now recognising the benefits they can gain from employing people with a disability.

Nearly 20% of Australia's population has a disability. Hiring a person with a disability is a great way of reflecting the diversity of your customer base and creating customer loyalty - Source: Diversity @ Work

The Victoria Hotel - Melbourne

A room with a view

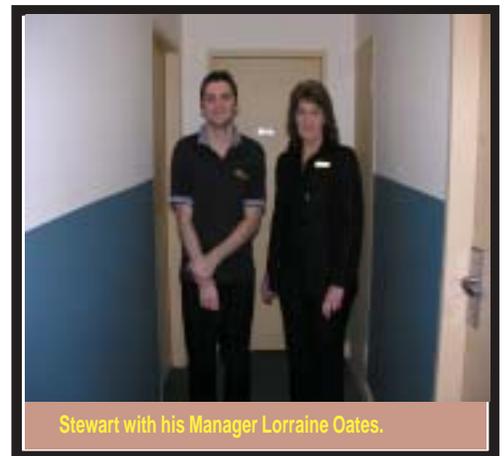

The Victoria Hotel is located in the centre of Melbourne, right in the heart of the city. This historic landmark hotel combines the grandeur of the late 1800's and contemporary comfort. Last year the Hotel celebrated its 125th year in operation.

Stewart Sendall commenced work at the Hotel seven months ago, he is employed as a room attendant. Stewart says the best thing about working at the Victoria Hotel is the easy going environment; he gets on well with his fellow workers and his Manager Lorraine Oates. Stewart especially enjoyed the Christmas party the Hotel put on for the staff.

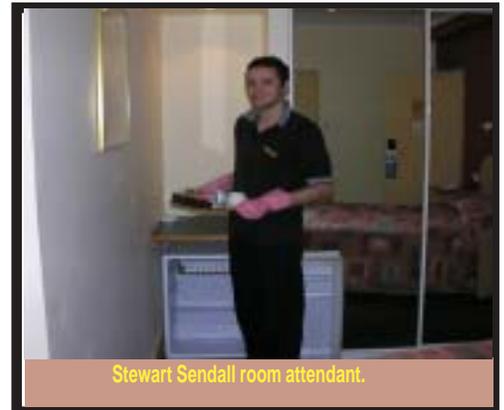

Stewart hopes to increase his responsibilities in the future by doing relief Houseman duties.

Lorraine Oates the Housekeeping Manager says of Stewart "He is so friendly and likeable; he is well respected by the rest of the team and supervisors. Stewart always tries hard to deliver a high standard of work, is very good at his job and always aims to please."

If Stewart continues delivering a high standard of work, there is no reason why his future ambitions can't be realised. We all wish Stewart the best of luck and keep up the good work Stewart.
