Safeway Watergardens Receives Certificate of Appreciation.

Recently, Rebecca, the Service Manager at Safeway Watergardens was presented with a Certificate of Appreciation from Jobs West to thank her and the store for supporting the employment of people with disabilities. Scott Quayle has worked at this store for over 5 years and in this time has not only become a valued employee but has also been given the chance to really develop his skills in a variety of areas. We would like to acknowledge Safeway Watergardens for their flexibility and positive attitude and congratulate Scott on being such a dedicated and hard-working employee.

Need to modify your work place?

Assistance is available to help with the cost of workplace adjustments or solutions needed to accommodate a worker with a disability in a job. While the majority of workers with a disability won't require any workplace modifications, the Workplace Modifications Scheme aims to make accommodating employees with a disability in your workplace easier. For more information on the Workplace Modification Scheme call the JobAccess Advisers on 1800 464 800 or visit www.jobaccess.gov.au.

Champs award for Darcy at Pizza Hut.

Darcy O'Brien started work at Pizza Hut on the 14th of June, 2006. He is employed in back of house. Darcy's duties include making pizzas, putting the garlic bread and chips into the oven, heating the pasta sauces and pastas, and keeping the front pizza and pasta bar well stocked. Darcy takes pleasure in doing this and prides himself on doing a good job.

Recently the Pizza Hut City store had their annual store review by the Head Office. During this review the Head Office look at the cleanliness, service and maintenance of the whole store. They were impressed with the team work of all the staff.

Darcy was awarded with an Excellence Award and was presented with an Excellence badge. Also a Champs Award which stated "Fantastic speed of service, the customers really appreciate your keeping the front bar well stocked."

Prior to working for Pizza Hut, Darcy said that he had been job seeking with out much success. Darcy said that he really appreciates Jobs West assisting him to find this job.

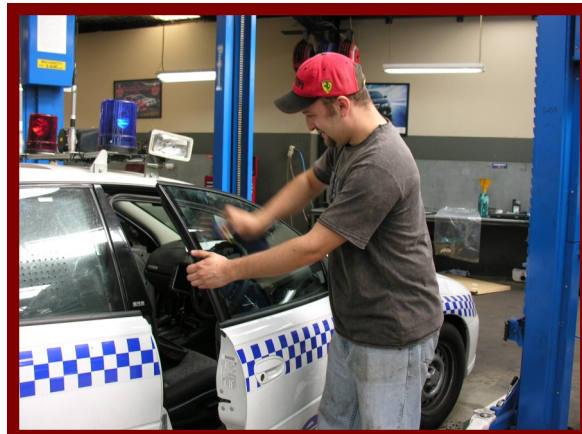

Congratulations Darcy, keep up the great work.
